6 Dynamic Webinars to Increase Your Knowledge

Series 1 - Working with Learners Living in Poverty

Series 2 - Working with Learners on the Apprenticeship Goal Path

Pop Up PD was developed for LBS practitioners by a committee of the Learning Networks of Ontario (LNO) and the Provincial Support Organizations of Ontario (PSOL) and e-Channel. Our goal is to provide free PD (Professional Development) opportunities to literacy educators via topical webinars. Technical Support is provided by Contact North.

The work of the Pop Up PD committee is funded by the Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities. You can learn more about the Pop Up PD initiative at <https://learningnetworks.ca/resources-publications/popuppd/>

Webinar #1

Literacy and Essential Skills as a Poverty Reduction Strategy

Thursday, September 26, 2019, 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm

Angela Briscoe from Frontier College will discuss research around literacy and poverty reduction. This webinar will include an overview of the report's 11 key research findings and 11 strategic recommendations, which point to the need for improved coordination and collaboration in efforts to address poverty in our communities.

Best practices will be highlighted, such as customizing learning resources and using learner-centred approaches that harness the experience and needs of adult learners. This webinar will be moderated by Annemarie Wesolowski, Literacy Northwest.

Webinar #2

Better Research for Better Practice: Understanding the Characteristics, Experiences and Trajectories of Ontario Works (OW) Clients in Toronto

Thursday, October 24, 2019, 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm

Toronto Employment and Social Services conducted a research study of singles on Ontario Works in Toronto. The focus of the study was to better understand their characteristics, service experiences and needs, how the singles caseload is changing over time, and what factors might predict exits to employment for this population group.

Join us to learn about this important research into the needs of OW clients, including key study findings and how to connect research results to frontline service planning and program design. This webinar will be moderated by Tamara Kaattari, Literacy Link South Central.

Webinar #4

Demystifying Apprenticeship Training

Thursday, December 12, 2019, 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm

Did you know you can become an apprentice in over 130 trades in Ontario? Over 50 of those are “Red Seal” trades, which means the qualifications are recognized across Canada. This webinar will provide you with an overview of what’s involved in apprenticeship training, educational requirements, how to register as an apprentice, the role of employers and job prospects in the skilled trades sector.

The information presented will be useful to both practitioners and learners who want to know more about apprenticeship opportunities and the requirements in Ontario.

Featured Presenter Barb Glass, Executive Director
College Sector Committee for Adult Upgrading
